

Residential Organic Waste Program PE 5

Description of the Program and Quantity Collected November 2018 – May 2019

Following the Town Board appointment of a Town of Saugerties Organic Recycling Coordinator on October 3, 2018, the Town of Saugerties established a Residential Organic Waste Program in November 2018. It is a food waste, drop off program at the Saugerties Transfer Station on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays from 7:00 am to 3:00pm for residents of Saugerties, Woodstock and Shandaken, The town works with Community Composting Co, a New York State registered Women Business Enterprise, that collects the food waste on a weekly basis. The food waste is processed into high quality compost.
