Whereas the City of Hudson has taken the Climate Smart Communities (CSC) Pledge.

Whereas climate change will have devastating impacts and the City of Hudson must reduce greenhouse gas emissions.

Whereas we must prepare for climate change variability by identifying and deploying adaptation strategies.

Therefore, I, Kamal Johnson, Mayor of the City of Hudson, New York am forming a CSC Task Force for the purpose of climate mitigation and adaptation actions as well as pursuing certification as a NYS Climate Smart Community.

I do hereby name, constitute and appoint Michael Chameides as the City of Hudson's Climate Smart Coordinator commencing immediately. Duties related to this position include chairing the CSC task force, working with the task force to complete climate mitigation and adaptation actions, coordinating the submission for CSC certification, and serving as a liaison between the CSC task force and the Mayor's Office.

Furthermore, I do hereby name, constitute, and appoint the following members to the CSC Task Force: Michael Chameides (chair), Kam Bellamy, Michael O'Hara, John Rosenthal, Briggin Scharf and Tony Stone.

These appointments commence immediately. Task Force members will assist the CSC Coordinator in completing climate mitigation and adaptation actions, providing community education, and compiling documentation for the certification.
