ALBANY, N.Y. (NEWS10) — Albany County has launched a "shop local" campaign to help local businesses struggling because of the coronavirus pandemic.

It is hoped that the campaign will not only help local businesses, but also increase the amount of money that stays in the local economy.

"I'm asking residents to give back to those who have been disproportionately impacted by the Coronavirus. That is the message of our Shop Local campaign."

- DAN MCCOY, ALBANY COUNTY EXECUTIVE

Numerous business owners have also highlighted how local charities, fundraisers and other non-profits benefit when small stores do well.

"Shop Local Campaigns are vital to our Capital Region's economy. Our local businesses support non-profits, employ many jobs and provide products and services that help our area prosper."

- JONATHAN PHILLIPS, PHILLIPS HARDWARE PRESIDENT & OWNER
