Narrative:

The Erie County Soil and Water Conservation District has completed the assessment of 153 culvert crossings within the Upper Buffalo Creek Watersheds located within Erie County. The majority of the assessments were completed by Water Quality Technician Kevin Preischel, with assistance from District Interns, Alyssa Hessler and Rebecca Mann. Four sub-watersheds were evaluated to the fullest extent possible taking into account access issues (private property) and safety concerns (steep embankments and high traffic areas). Each crossing was assessed using the Aquatic Connectivity Stream Crossing Survey Data Form, as well as the Culvert Condition Assessment Data Forms. Throughout the project a common issue that occurred was inaccuracy with the NAACC Database Map. The location of culvert crossings in the field would not match the location of crossings on the database map; however this issue was typically resolved quickly in the field with further investigation. The biggest lesson learned throughout this process was that proper planning and reconnaissance in-office was key to accurate and efficient assessments in the field. A number of pictures have been included in this report showing in field evaluations that may be good for education and outreach.
