

PE7 Action: Cooling Centers

We are seeking 4 points for the establishment and promotion of cooling centers in Bedford.

Town of Bedford has several options for Cooling Centers - one option listed on ConEd's website in 2020 was the Town House. The Town House is located at 321 Bedford Road in Bedford NY.

Cooling centers and have been promoted using the town's social media platforms. The Town of Bedford alerts residents through their social media on heat advisory days and of the available cooling centers for residents.

Stay safe Bedford !!

The Westchester County Health Department has issued a heat advisory. Swipe through to see some tips to help you and your loved ones beat the heat.

Heat stroke is a life threatening condition and anyone suffering from heat stroke should seek medical treatment immediately. If you or someone you know suspects they may be suffering from heat stroke, call 911 and cool the overheated person while waiting for medical attention to arrive.

A footer section with three icons: a flame, a sun, and a building. To the right of the icons, the text reads: COOL OFF AT YOUR LOCAL LIBRARY, followed by Bedford has three local libraries that have air conditioning!
