

Before the West Main Street extension project, the street terminated at a municipal parking lot. The project extended the street and sidewalks towards Aurora Street.

